VEGETIN PURIFIES THE BLOOD AND GIVES

STRENGTH. Du Quoin, Ill., Jan'y. 21, '78.

Mr. H. R. Stevens:

Dear Sir—Your "Vegetine" has been doing wonders for me. Have been having the chills and fexer, contracted in the swamps of the South, nothing giving me relief until I began the use of your Vegetine, it giving me immedi-

South, nothing giving me relief until 1 began the use of your Vegetine, it giving me immediate relief, toning up my system, purifying my blood, giving strength; whereas all other medicines weakened me, and filled my system with poision; and I am satisfied that if families that live in the ague districts of the South and West would take Vegetine two or three times a week, they would not be troubled with the "chills" or malignant ferers that prevail at certain times of the year, save doctors' bills, and live to a good old age.

Agent Henderson's Looms, St. Louis, Mo.

ALL DISEASES OF THE BLOOD.—If Vegetine will relieve pain, cleanse, purify and cure such diseases, restoring the patient to perfect health, after trying different physicians, many remedies, suffering for years, is it not conclusive proof, if your are a sufferer, you can be cured? Why is this medicine performing such great cures? It works in the blood, in the circulating fluid. It can truly be called the Great Blood Purifier. The great source of disease originates in the blood; and no medicine that does not act directly upon it, to purify and renovate, has any just claim upon public attention.

VEGETINE HAS ENTIRELY CURED ME OF VERTIGO. Cairo, Ill., Jan'y. 23, '78.

Mr. Stevens:

Dear Sir—I have sued several bottles of "Vegetine;" it has entirely cured me of Vertigo. I have also used it for Kidney Complaint. If is the best medicine for kidney complaint. I would recommed it as a good blood purifier.

N. YOCUM.

PAIN AND DISEASE.—Can we expect to enjoy good health when bad or corrupt humors circulate with the blood, causing pain and disease; and these humors, being deposited through the entire body, produce pimples, eruptions, ulcers, indigestion, costiveness, headache, neuralgia, rheumatism, and numerous other complaints? Remove the cause by taking Vegetine, the most reliable remedy for cleaning and purifying the blood.

I BELIEVE ITTO BE A GOOD MEDICINE. Xenia, O., March 1, 1871.

Mr Stevens:
Dear Sir—I wish to inform you what your Vegetine has done for me. I have been afficted with Neuralgia, and after using three bottles of the Vegetine was entirely relieved. I also found my general health much improved. I believe it o be a good medicine. Yours truly, FRED HARVESTICK.

VEGETINE thoroughly eradicates every kind of humor, and restores the entire system to a hoslthy condition.

The Confederate Archives and the Southern Historical Society.

[From the Richmond Dispatch.] RICHMOND, September 26, 1878.-There has been so many inaccurate statements made in referense to the Archive Office at Washington. and its relations to the Southern Historical So ciety, that I deem it proper to make a brief statement of the facts. At the convention to reorganize our Scoiets, held at the Montgomery White Sulphur Springs in August, 1873, a resolution was adopted instructing the secretary to make application to the authorities at Washington for access to the Confederate archives collected there. As, bowever, it was known that all such applies tions on the part of our Confederate officers had been refused, we hesitated to make the applica tion until in November, 1875. The then Secretary of War, General Belknap, opened a correspondence with our Society, as the result of an interview which the scoretary of the Society had with his private secretary (Dr. Barnard.) This correspondence resulted in nothing, as the Secretary of War insisted upon our simply giving him copies of such parts of our archives as he might desire without any equivalent, and our committee, on the other hand, were unwilling that "the reciprocity should all be on one side," and insisted upon an exchange of documents. In January, 1877, Dr. Barnard, by the direction of the Sceretary of War. Han Dan Campage, respected the care of War, Hon. Don Cameron, reopened the correspondence; but as no better terms were offered us we again declined to turn over our archives to the inspection and use of the War Depart ment unless there should be full reciprocation. The course of the War Department very naturally excited the fear that there was no purpose to deal fairly with Confederte doeuments in the proposed publication of the "Official History of the Rebellion."

We were loth to make any further move in the matter, and had not done so, although we had been gratified to learn that Secretary McCrary had been pursuing a more liberal policy towards some of our friends.

Under date of August 7, 1878, however, we received a letter from General Marcus J. Wright, late of the Confederate Army of Tennesse, in which he announced his appointment as "an agent of the War Department for the collection, &c., of the Confederate records of the war," and stated that he was authorized by the Secretary of the War to say that any duly accredited agent of the Southern Historical Society will be allowed access to the EGETINE Confederate archives, to consult them, and to take copies for historical purposes. This offer, made voluntarily and without condition, was all that we had ever asked, and was in the highest degree gratifying to our committee. We, of course, responded in the same spirit, and cordially reciprocated by tendering the War Department free cosess to our archives, and the privilege of copying acythicg they might wish. General Wright at once came to Richmond, and had a very satisfactory interview with the secretary and other members of our executive committee. We went to work to prepare an accurate catalogue of our official documents, carefully arranged in chronological order, so that, by comparison with the catalogue of the War Department, it might be seen what was wanted to complete the files of each collection. This catalogue was completed on Monday ast, and I took it on to Washington, where I had a most satis actory interview with Adjutant General Townsend, who now has charge of the whole matter of the archives and their publication; Colonel R. N. Scott, who is in charge of the compilation of the records; Mr. A. P. Tasker, who is keeper of the archives; General

Wright, and other gentlemen connected with the War Record Office. General Townsend received me with every courtesy and kindness, and we had a long talk on the whole question. He assured me that so far from desiring to suppress, he is exceedingly anxious to obtain, in order to publish, full fies of all of our Confederate reports and other official documents; that he is pushing the work of compilation as rapidly as possible, and that he is ready to give our Society every facility in his power to secure copies of whatever we may wish for historical purposes. In a word, the whole matter has at last been arranged to the satisfaction of both parties, and the work of exchange will be begun just so soon as our lists can be made out. A visit to the Archive Office impressed me very favorably with the system, order, and care with which everything is managed. General Wright, of course, showed me every courtesy and I was more than ever impressed with his high qulifications for his position. And surely, if the "official history" of the great struggle is to be published by the Government, it is to our interest to make the Confederate part of it as full as possible.

J. WM. JONES,

Sec'y. of Southern Historical Society.

VICARIOUS FEASTING .- An English writer once declared that the greatest benefactor of the human race would be he who could enable men to drink an unlimited quantity of wine without getting drunk. Such a man has been found. Dr. Bell invented the telephone, but its wonders pale before the telegastograph .-This is an electrical machine by which the palate can be tickled and pleased by any flaver, and for any length of time, without fear of indigestion or inebriety. By putting soup or fish or wine into a receptacle connected with a powerful battery, the taste of the dantiest viands can be conveyed along a telegraph wire for miles, and to an unlimited number of bons vivants. They have only to put the wire into their mouths, and they seem to be cating and drinking. They may get drunk or over fed, but the moment the contact is broken the evil effects pass off, and nothing remains but "a delightful exhibitation." The inventor, however, keeps the modus operandi a perfect secret, and wishes to perfect his discovery before he discloses it to the world.

AN ENTIRE Success.-The greatest display in dress goods you ever, at any one time, saw will be found at Isaac Eichberg's. This house has just completed its fall purchases, and will have a grand opening of its new stock on Monday morning, Sept. 30th, consisting of all the latest povelties in Silks, Velvets, Satins, Bowrett's Hosery, Gloves and Trimmings; also a complete line of Carpets, Oil Cloth and Rugs in all the brands made, new designs and new prices. The ladies in particular are respectfully invited to examine our stock. Samples freely given and prices guaranteed.
